JANUARY

"SPARE NOTHING"

by Jonathan M. Zaley

As they say in bowling centers around the globe, "Split Happens." This interactive comedy will have you rolling in the alleys with laughter!

One of the league semi-finalists, The St. Mary's of the Alley's Mixed Nuts bowling team, is preparing for the big championship game. This bunch of "pinheads" will keep you giggling as they talk about missing a league member's funeral (because NOTHING prevents you from missing bowling practice), to rented bowling shoes, to those gorgeous bowling alley waitresses, to good ole camaraderie and more.

This show is sure to "strike" a nerve for anyone who has ever bowled or had to live with someone that did!

Getting Sara Married

A Comedy by Sam Bobrick

Sara Hastings is an unmarried lawyer in her mid-thirties, much too busy to get involved in any romance. Her Aunt Martha has decided to take matters into her own hands and find her a husband.

Unfortunately, Aunt Martha's method of finding a prospective groom amounts to having him bopped over the head and brought to Sara's apartment. Aunt Martha's choice is Brandon Cates, a young man who handles her finances and is already engaged to be married.

After a few head-boppings, temporary amnesia, several instances of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and a confrontation with a very angry fiancé, Brandon slowly comes to realize that Sara is really the girl for him.

“WHEN IRISH COWS ARE SMILING”

THE Hilarious MOO-morial Tribute to O'Leary's Cow

by Jonathan M. Zaley

Set after the Great Chicago Fire, this hysterical MOO-morial service, held at the Diggum, Deepe & Dye Funeral Parlour, pays tribute to Mrs. O'Leary's cow, Daniella Joy, the infamous firebug.

As you come to pay your respects, Justin Thyme, the funeral Director greets you beside a sobbing Catherine O'Leary.

Eulogies are read to our dear friend, the famous cow, and we sing along to some familiar Irish tunes with a lyrical twist:

Moo Ra Loo Ra Loo Ra,

Danni Joy,

When Irish Cows Are Smiling

Mrs. O'Leary takes the podium, determines that Danni Joy was not to blame, and discovers the true culprit that started the fire.

Richard Dresser's ROUNDING THIRD

It's “The Odd Couple” meets Little League!

Reuniting

Larry Lewis (Oscar) & David W. Mitchell (Felix)

This comedy follows the tumultuous journey of two completely opposite Little League coaches through an entire season.

Don is the tough, blue-collar, win-at-all-costs veteran coach whose son is the star pitcher. Michael is the sensitive “just do your best” coach who knows nothing about baseball.

He's a corporate executive who wants a special activity with his son, who's also never played baseball before.

Michael and Don form an uneasy alliance and over the course of exhilarating victories, heartbreaking defeats, and rain-outs, the two men battle over how to lead the team.

Church Basement Ladies

A New Musical Comedy

Church Basement Ladies, is a celebration of the church basement kitchen and the women who work there, as they organize the food and solve the problems of a rural Minnesota church about to undergo changes in 1965.

From the elderly matriarch of the kitchen to the young bride-to-be learning the proper order of things, we see them handle a record breaking Christmas dinner, the funeral of a dear friend, a Hawaiian Easter Fund

Raiser, and, of course, a steaming hot July wedding.

Funny and down to earth, audiences will recognize these ladies as they witness the church year unfold from below the house of God.
